

Newsletter

October 2023

KSTU ALUMNA TRANSFORMS FINAL YEAR PROJECT INTO A FLOURISHING BUSINESS

In an inspiring tale of entrepreneurship and innovation, a former student of Kumasi Technical University has transformed her final-year project into a flourishing commercial venture. Ms. Anastasia Acquah, an alumna of the University who pursued a Bachelor of Technology programme in Pharmaceutical Sciences under the Faculty of Health Sciences, has harnessed the power of natural remedies to create a very efficacious skincare product. Read more

BREAKING BARRIERS: KSTU'S DIRECTOR OF PLANNING AND QUALITY ASSURANCE SHINES AT THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

In a remarkable display of academic excellence and international collaboration, Ing. Prof. Abena Obiri-Yeboah, the Director of Planning and Quality Assurance at Kumasi Technical University (KSTU), recently embarked on a transformative journey to Colombia. The trip, which took place from October 9th to 13th, saw Prof. Obiri-Yeboah representing KSTU at the prestigious Semana Internacional Cartagena (International Week). Her mission was to share insights into "Science and Innovation Applied in Sustainable Development in Ghana", providing glimpses into Ghana's culture, history and the remarkable accomplishments of Kumasi Technical University. Read more

KSTU EXPANDS GLOBAL FOOTPRINT THROUGH ERASMUS+ STAFF MOBILITY PROGRAMME

Staff and students of Kumasi Technical University (KSTU) continue to make strides within the tertiary landscape. Mrs. Elizabeth Koomson, an Assistant Lecturer in the Department of Procurement and Supply Chain Management, has embarked on an extraordinary journey to Turkey as part of the University's participation in the Erasmus+ Training Staff Mobility Programme. This initiative exemplifies the University's commitment to fostering international cooperation and facilitating the exchange of knowledge and expertise. Read more

KSTU STRENGTHENS ERASMUS+ COLLABORATION WITH EBERSWALDE UNIVERSITY FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

In a remarkable step towards fostering international cooperation and expanding academic horizons, Kumasi Technical University (KSTU) had the distinct honour of hosting Dr. Astrid Schilling, representing the Eberswalde University for Sustainable Development (Hochschule für nachhaltige Entwicklung Eberswalde) from Germany. Dr. Schilling's visit aimed at deepening the already existing Erasmus+ collaboration between these two prestigious institutions and explore potential avenues for future partnerships. Dr. Schilling's visit commenced with a warm courtesy call on the Vice-Chancellor of KSTU, Prof. Gabriel Dwomoh as well as various Deans and Directors of the university. Read more

THE HR DIRECTORATE EMPOWERS NEW HEADS IN ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Kumasi Technical University recently organised an orientation programme aimed at providing essential leadership skills and knowledge to its newly appointed Deans, Directors, Vice Deans, Deputy Directors and Heads of Department (HoDs). The programme was organised by the Human Resource Directorate with the goal of ensuring that these appointees could confidently and effectively fulfill their roles in their respective positions. Read more

UNIVERSITÉ NORBERT ZONGO STUDENTS SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE LANGUAGE IMMERSION PROGRAMME AT KUMASI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY

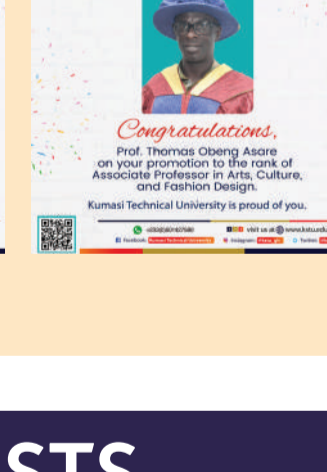

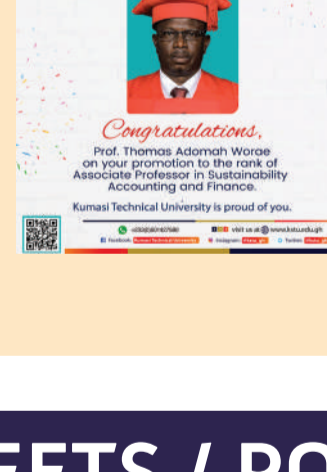

Students from Université Norbert ZONGO in Burkina Faso have concluded a successful Language Immersion Programme at Kumasi Technical University (KSTU). This intensive programme, spanning four weeks, was designed to enhance the students' English language proficiency and promote international relations. Read more

KUMASI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY SHINES AS ALL-MALE GROUP TAKES 3RD PLACE IN EPIC CULINARY SHOWDOWN

In a thrilling culinary showdown that left audience on the edge of their seats, Kumasi Technical University's all-male team emerged as the 3rd place winners in the highly competitive Big Chef Tertiary Kitchen Battle. The grand finale, which took place on Sunday, October 1, 2023, at Hottel Technical University campus in the Volta region, saw contestants from three prestigious technical universities vie for culinary supremacy. Read more

NEWLY PROMOTED ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS

TWEETS / POSTS

@KSTUGH
Admission cost only GH¢200. You can purchase forms directly from the University's Cash office or pay with your mobile money by dialing *389*610# on all networks

@KSTUGH
As we stand in solidarity with those affected by the Akosombo Dam spillage, KSTU is taking a proactive step to support the victims of the spillage. We call on all staff, students, alumni and the entire University community to help us support the victims.

@KSTUGH
At KSTU, you don't need to be a science student to pursue Engineering!

The Pre-Engineering Programme gives you the foundational knowledge and skills needed to pursue your engineering dreams.

@KSTUGH
Unlock Culinary Excellence! Join our Practical Catering and Training Short Courses from October 16th to December 31st, 2023.

Elevate your culinary skills and create delicious memories.

Follow us on www.kstu.edu.gh